Pursuant to Rule 166a(c), the Court shall conduct all hearings on Motions for Summary Judgment by submission only, unless the parties agree and present an agreed order for oral arguments. All Motions for Continuance must be submitted in writing, with a Certificate of Conference indicating the parties have discussed the Motion, OR in writing with an agreed order containing the signatures of all parties. Motions for Continuance shall contain the reason for the request, as well as an anticipated timeframe for said reason to be resolved.
